

John Branstetter
Vice President, Marketing and Communications

John Branstetter, Vice President of Marketing and Communications, directs Rave Computer's overall marketing and communications strategy and direction.

Branstetter joined Rave Computer in 2011 after serving as President of Incontrol Logistics, which consults with companies seeking professional expertise for strategic marketing and sales planning, business reengineering, corporate customer service training, and functional technology consultation.

Branstetter has over 30 years experience in supply chain management and corporate marketing consultative initiatives.

Branstetter holds a Masters of Science from the University of Missouri and a B.S. in Education from Lincoln University of Missouri.

In addition to being a member of AFCEA International, Branstetter is a member of Huron Valley Educational Foundation (Emeritus Trustee), Chicago Traffic Club, Amvets, and The American Legion. Branstetter is a Vietnam veteran having served in the U.S. Army as an Infantry Ranger Advisor. He was honorably discharged as a Captain.